COMMENTS:

Earl Graves is requesting a Waiver for the late and final filing covering 2017 PFD. Mr. Graves stated he is 74 years old and cannot afford to pay $1500 because he is a Senior Citizen living on a fixed income. He stated he has been serving his community since the age of 16 and did not understand that the 2017 PFD Disclosure was still required to file after he left the board. Mr. Graves would appreciate the Ethics Board waiving the late fee penalty. This is Mr. Graves first late fee and first late filing.

Late Fee Assessment Report: PFD19011373

ATTN: Ashley Wimberly, Director

Dear Ashley,

In reference to letter I received dated 4/17/20
I would like to appeal to the committee about the assessment of late fee.

I did not understand all this paperwork to be filled in 2017 Report. I would like to tell you I am 74 years old & have been involved in community activities since I was 16 yrs of age, youth activities & ~~some~~ community activities, & ~~church~~ church activities.

I cannot afford this fine because I am a senior citizen on a fixed income. I would appreciate you take these things into consideration & ~~wave~~ wave this fee.

Thanks in advance for your consideration

Earl T. Graves
